Brief Overview of Course

This course aims to promote neuroinclusivity at work. It's acknowledged that there are many conditions that sit under the umbrella term 'neurodiverse' and that no two people will experience their diagnosis in the same way. This training aims to raise general awareness of neurodiversity and explores just some of the ways we can build a supportive and inclusive workplace.

This course aims to increase awareness of neurodiversity at work and explores ways we can support neurodiverse employees.

This course takes 40 minutes to complete.

By the end of this course, you should be able to:

- Explain what is meant by the term 'neurodiverse'.
- Recognise the benefits of neurodiversity at work.
- Identify how a 'typical' work environment could significantly impact a neurodiverse employee's daily life.

Support and implement small adjustments that could benefit neurodiverse employees in your workplace
