

Standards in Public Life

NEW ONLINE TRAINING

This is an e-learning course.
Registration on this course will last 12 months.

£17 + VAT per delegate

Brief Overview of Course

This module is designed to support those elected or co-opted and/or working in local councils, to understand the principles of conduct expected of all councillors.

Councillors must abide by its own council's code of conduct. Information provided in this module is based upon national model guidance produced by The Local Government Association. The module also supports other versions of the Code of Conduct.

Learning objectives:

- Understand councillor obligations under the Code
- Understand when and where the Code applies
- Understand the minimum standards of conduct required in public office
- Understand the importance of training and maintaining competence
- Understand the different types of interest and when to declare

Understand the importance of the Register of Interests and its ongoing maintenance

This course takes 35 minutes to complete.

To Book: Complete the standard EALC booking form and send to training@ealc.gov.uk who will then register you with Nimble. Once processed you will receive joining instructions and your Council will then be issued with an invoice.